

Eric Allshouse Named Interim Superintendent

The Board of Education welcomes Eric Allshouse as the interim superintendent of EHPS

Eric has served as Director of Curriculum and State/Federal Programs in our district since 2017. He earned a B.S. in elementary education from Oakland University, an M.S. in educational leadership and administration from Concordia University, and a Central Office Endorsement from Curriculum Leadership Michigan ASCD. He has previous administrative experience serving as an elementary principal in Oscoda Area Schools as well as their State/Federal Program Coordinator. Eric lives in Hampton Township with his wife, Tiffany, and children Lela (12), Lucy (4), and Hudson (3).

"I feel we are very fortunate to have Eric on board. He is a very conscientious individual who has done a great job in his position as Curriculum Director. Eric will always put students and staff as his top priority. I feel that Eric will do an excellent job of moving the Essexville education community forward," Board of Education President Charlie Rochow said.

"I am honored and humbled to serve the Essexville-Hampton school community. Our students and staff deserve our very best and through continuous improvement, we have a very exciting future." - Eric Allshouse
